

Where libraries and
accessibility connect

Reading materials for people with print disabilities available at your public library

Visit your public library or www.celalibrary.ca to join

Do you or someone you know have difficulty reading print?

Your local public library offers a collection of 400,000 professional produced books and more for people who have trouble reading print due to a learning, physical or visual disability.

- Enjoy the full range of subjects, genres, classics and award winners for all ages.
- Choose your preferred format: audio, text or braille.
- Download materials or receive by mail.
- Free access to Bookshare, the worlds largest collection of accessible titles
- Free access and a full range of services available to educators

All you need is your public library card to access this free service.

Join through your public library or visit www.celalibrary.ca

Funding generously provided by

